(e) ACTIONS OF COUNCIL.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—The Council shall act by resolution agreed to by a majority of the members of the Council voting and present.
(2) PANELS.—The Council may establish panels composed of less than the full membership of the Council for purposes of carrying out the duties of the Council under this section. The actions of any such panel shall be subject to the review and control of the Council. Any findings and determinations made by such a panel shall not be considered the findings and determinations of the Council unless approved by the Council.

(3) DELEGATION.—Any member, agent, or staff of the Council may, if authorized by the co-chairs of the Council, take any action which the Council is authorized to take pursuant to this section.

(f) DUTIES.—The duties of the Council are to review past actions of the processes and procedures used to advance wireless communication deployment, including 5G technology, and advise Congress on 6G advancements, existing gaps in the standardization and development of 6G, and other advanced wireless communications technologies.

(g) STRATEGY.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—The Council shall develop and submit to Congress recommendations for how the Federal Government can support—

(A) the development and adoption of 6G and other advanced wireless communications technologies, including ensuring digital inclusion and equity in access to such technologies for communities of color, those underserved, and rural communities;

(B) assessment of roles and responsibilities within the Federal Government and how the Federal Government can better coordinate functions to ensure timely decisions and needed actions;

(C) research and development into, and standards for, 6G and other advanced wireless communications technologies, including collaboration with the private sector and United States allies; and

(D) the promotion of international cooperation, including security cooperation, with respect to 6G and other wireless communications technologies.

(2) CONSIDERATIONS.—In developing the strategy under this subsection, the Council shall consider the following issues:

(A) Access to adequate spectrum resources to support 6G and other advanced wireless communications technologies.
(B) Assessment of the Federal Government’s function as regulator of electromagnetic spectrum, including but not limited to, testing capabilities, proper access to timely and relevant information, the Interdepartment Radio Advisory Committee and interagency cooperation, and communication with Federal and commercial license holders.

(C) Supply chain resiliency and security, including vendor diversity, for 6G and other advanced wireless communications technologies.

(D) Assessment of the workforce needs in order to build, maintenance, and utilize 6G networks, including the necessary diversity within each of these areas.

(E) Ensure greater collaboration and information sharing to make certain advanced networks, including those utilized by first responders, remain secure and resilient in the face of cyber intrusions and natural disasters.

(F) Other issues identified as important to the successful development and deployment of 6G and other advanced wireless communications technologies, such as artificial intelligence and machine learning, satellite and fixed wireless broadband, and open RAN technologies.

(h) POWERS OF COUNCIL.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—The Council or, on the authorization of the Council, any subcommittee or member thereof, may, for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this section hold such hearings and sit and act at such times and places, take such testimony, receive such evidence, and administer such oaths.

(2) CONTRACTING.—The Council may, to such extent and in such amounts as are provided in advance in appropriation Acts, enter into contracts to enable the Council to discharge its duties under this section.

(3) INFORMATION FROM FEDERAL AGENCIES.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—The Council may secure directly from any executive department, agency, bureau, board, council, office, independent establishment, or instrumentality of the Government information, suggestions, estimates, and statistics for the purposes of this section.

(B) REQUIREMENT TO SHARE INFORMATION.—Each such department, agency, bureau, board, commission, office, establishment, or instrumentality shall, to the extent authorized by law, furnish such information, suggestions, estimates, and statistics directly to the Council, upon request of the co-chairs of the Council.

(C) Treatment of classified information.—The Council shall handle and protect all classified information provided to it under this section in accordance with applicable statutes and regulations.

(4) Assistance from Federal Agencies.—

(A) In general.—The Secretary of Commerce, acting through the Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Communications and Information, shall provide to the Council, on a reimbursable basis, such administrative services, funds, staff, facilities, and other support services as are necessary for the performance of the Council’s duties under this section.

(B) Administrative support.—The Chairperson of the Federal Communications Council may provide the Council, on a reimbursable basis, with such administrative services, staff, and other support services as the Council may request.
(C) ADDITIONAL SUPPORT.—In addition to the assistance set forth in paragraphs (1) and (2), other departments and agencies of the Federal Government may provide the Council such services, funds, facilities, staff, and other support as such departments and agencies consider advisable and as may be authorized by law.

(D) COOPERATION AMONG AGENCIES.—The Council shall receive the full and timely cooperation of any official, department, or agency of the Federal Government, including from the Department of State, Department of Defense, and the Office of the United States Trade Representative, whose assistance is necessary, as jointly determined by the co-chairs selected under subsection (b)(2), for the fulfillment of the duties of the Council, including the provision of full and current briefings and analyses.

(5) POSTAL SERVICES.—The Council may use the United States Postal Service in the same manner and under the same conditions as the departments and agencies of the Federal Government.

(6) GIFTS.—No member or staff of the Council may receive a gift or benefit by reason of the service of such member or staff to the Council.
(i) Staff of Council.—

(1) In general.—

(A) Appointment of staff director and other personnel.—The co-chairs of the Council, in accordance with rules agreed upon by the Council, shall appoint and fix the compensation of a staff director and such other personnel as may be necessary to enable the Council to carry out its duties, without regard to the provisions of title 5, United States Code, governing appointments in the competitive service, and without regard to the provisions of chapter 51 and subchapter III of chapter 53 of such title relating to classification and General Schedule pay rates, except that no rate of pay fixed under this subsection may exceed the equivalent of that payable to a person occupying a position at level V of the Executive Schedule under section 5316 of such title 5.

(B) Detailees.—Any Federal Government employee may be detailed to the Council without reimbursement from the Council, and such detailee shall retain the rights, status, and privileges of his or her regular employment without interruption
